WELCOME TO STRASBOURG THE EUROPEAN CAPITAL

International status & human size city experience

- 290 000 inhabitants
- 8th largest city in France
- Eurometropole of Strasbourg:
- 500 000 inhabitants
- Alsace: 1 879 000 inhabitants

WELCOME TO STRASBOURG: Unveil a Multicultural Heritage and Remarkable Architecture

Strasbourg is a city with a rich history spanning over two thousand years and UNESCO-listed architectural heritage. Our location in the center of Europe, along with our unique blend of German and Latin cultures, exceptional quality of life, and outstanding economical assets, make Strasbourg the ideal destination for an unforgettable experience.

One of the most iconic landmarks of Strasbourg is the stunning Gothic Cathedral of Notre-Dame, which is one of the tallest medieval buildings in Europe. Other notable attractions in the city include the picturesque "Petite France" neighborhood.

WELCOME TO STRASBOURG: Unveil a Multicultural Heritage and Remarkable Architecture

Strasbourg is one of the few cities that have preserved the legacy of German monumental architecture from the 19th century, you'll find traces of imperial German urbanism, a captivating reminder of its storied past.

It features grand boulevards, monumental buildings, and spacious squares that contrast with the medieval layout of the old city center (Grande Île). The Palais du Rhin (Palace of the Rhine), the Palais Universitaire, Parc de l'Orangerie showcase the ambitions of the German Empire to leave a lasting legacy in the city.
